Charade for yourself. Mamma.

Niles Friday May 16th

Dear Millie

You must expect a very long epistle written the day after leaving but I have some letters to enclose and cant let a letter go without a few words. Pour Lena arrived with a headache but is better this morning, and has gone to ride with Jas, not far, only down to see that Indian camp. Nellie seemed to stand the trip wonderfully and was up and round with F. as bright as could be this morning.

I was too busy to think yesterday, after I got the house in order I had some work to do on the Hort. and before I was quite done the folks came, and

and kept up a very agreeable hustle till bedtime.
You cannot think how good I am going to be this summer, I am going always to think of you as happy and having a good time and being a great comfort to Auntie and if any gloomy fears come I shall most unceremoniously shut the door in their face, So be just as happy as you can. I think I shall feel whether you are happy or not;
and dont worry about mama Lue is going to stay with me lots and we'll cheer one another. Lue says put the white suit $25,— Grenadine $30, Silk $50, if you should be so unfortunate as to have to price them. Lace jacket 40, or 50.
Love to Aunt Jane, Aunt Annie and Uncle, and as much as you
